

BITNER VINEYARDS

TEMPRANILLO ERLEXTE

K.P. Martin & Lanae Ridge Vineyards
Snake River Valley, Idaho

“erle” is bee and “etxe is house. Put those two together for the bee hive or where the bees live. Erletxe. Pronounced “air” and then “leche” (just like milk in Spanish).

Tasting Notes

Tempranillo’s hallmark sweet tobacco and leather aromas, and its ripe fruit flavors of black cherry and blackberry, mingle with notes of coffee and dried fig. The well-integrated tannins deliver a long, savory, and earthy finish.

Wine Makers: James Nederend & Martin Fujishin

Vineyard: K.P. Martin and Lanae Ridge Vineyards

Appellation: Snake River Valley, Idaho

Alcohol: 13.5%

Residual Sugar: Nil

Production: 113 cases

Price: $33/ Member: $28.05

Perfect Pairings

This wine pairs beautifully with grilled skirt steak, fingerling potatoes and chimichurri, rack of lamb, wood-fired margherita pizza, or zucchini noodles with fresh mushrooms, red sauce, garlic, grated parmesan.

